

Montana Budget &
Policy Center

MBPC Reports Available at MontanaBudget.org

Balanced Approach for 2011

- Montana's Revenue Challenges and Why it Matters
- Menu of Revenue Options for a Balanced Approach to Montana's Economic Recovery
- Making Sure All Taxpayers Contribute What They Owe
- Can Montana Afford an Oil and Gas Tax Holiday?
- Income Tax Bracket Collapse is Costing Montana
- Capital Gains Reform Will Strengthen Montana
- Montana Can Bypass a Costly and Ineffective Federal Tax Break for Corporations

Budget Policy

- Government Cuts Should Be Minimized and Targeted to Avoid Further Harm to the Economy and Struggling Montana Families
- Investing in our Common Good: A Guide to the Montana Budget
- The 2011 Biennium Budget: Maintenance, Recovery, and Future Cuts
- Federal Stimulus Funding Available to Montana Tribes
- Summary of Recovery and Reinvestment in Montana
- Dispelling Myths and Misconceptions about State Government, the Budget, and Federal Stimulus Dollars during a Recession

Tax Policy

- Restoring Revenue and Fairness: A New Top Marginal Rate for Taxable Income
- The Business Equipment Tax in Context
- SB407 did not Expand the Economy
- Ending Preferential Treatment of Capital Gains Income
- Targeted Property Tax Relief
- Investing in Montana's Working Families: A Montana Earned Income Tax Credit

Economic and Other Policy

- Public Service Job Losses Threaten Montana's Recovery
- What Health Reform Means for Montana
- How the Recovery Act Benefits Montana
- How National Health Insurance Reform Will Affect Montana
- State of Working Montana 2009
- Health Care Coverage in Montana